

“One day, I saw two roads. One was broad, covered with sand & flowers, full of joy, music & all sorts of pleasures. People walked along it, dancing & enjoying themselves. They reached the end without realizing it. And, at the end of the road, there was a horrible precipice; that is, the abyss of hell. The souls fell blindly into it; as they walked, so they fell. Their number was so great that it was impossible to count them. And I saw the other road, or rather, a path, for it was narrow & strewn with thorns & rocks; the people who walked along it had tears in their eyes & all kinds of suffering befell them. Some fell down upon the rocks, but stood up immediately and went on. At the end of the road there was a magnificent garden filled with all sorts of happiness, and all these souls entered there. And, at once, they forgot all their sufferings.” #152 The Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, near of the Divine Mercy

Today, a plenary indulgence is granted to those who take part in prayers & devotions held in honor of the Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father & the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus. Those who (for a just cause) cannot get to church can gain the same indulgence by reciting one Our Father, the Creed, & a devout prayer to the Lord before an image of the Divine Mercy. We will recite the chaplet after each low Mass today.

This week, Monday, at 12 pm, we will process around the perimeter of our property reciting the rogation litany, (handouts provided) then offer the Holy Sacrifice; Thursday, CtK's day at Planned Parenthood (1-5 pm) & Youth Catechism (5-6 pm).

Today's Masses: Christ the Lord is Risen Today #841

As mentioned last week, Fr Huber is away from April 19th to May 7th. As such, there are no 7 am weekday or 7 am & 12:30 pm Sunday Masses at CtK; if they are listed above, it is only so that you may know that he will offer them during his time away. Also, there will only be low Masses during this time.

Also, to accommodate attendees at our only two Masses on Sunday, the choir room at the south end of the complex, is available as another seating area to view the Mass. It is recommended that those with children use the social hall and those without use this new room if possible.

Terribilis est locus iste!* Please, during holy Mass, take unruly children to the social hall; also, please resist going to the bathroom during the consecration (just like Father.)

Please pray for: John Luscombe, Louis de Saizieu, Larry Walters (4/24); Roberta Speer, Janet Finazzo (4/17); Ralph Johnson, Lynda Hall, Terry Cullen, Gloria Flynn, Talsness family, Brian Meadows (3/20).

St Theresa Prayer Guild invites you to pray for your priests; stay tuned!

Last Sunday: Collection – $8,766.28; CFA: $400.00 and no pledges.

Attendance - Vigil-136; 8:30am-222; 10:30 am-146; 12:30 am-103; total 607 souls.

The Holy Family statue along the outside west wall of the social hall was donated by David Fabrizio in honor of his deceased wife; say a Hail Mary for her repose.
