

Today's Introit takes from Psalm 42, verses 1, 2; then 3. We identify them scripturally then understand them in relation to the feast. Bold print indicates the Introit inclusion.

Chapter 42 is paraphrased: “ The prophet aspires after the temple and altar of God.”

- 1. Judge me, O Lord, and distinguish my cause from the nation that is not holy: deliver me from the unjust and deceitful men.
- 2. For thou art God, my strength: (why hast thou cast me off? and why do I go sorrowful whilst the enemy afflict me?)

Judge me, O Lord. Here, St. Robert Bellarmine identifies David as sorely oppressed by Saul, or as “tempted by demons,” and, as he has no human aid to rely upon, he appeals to His God as a judge.” Distinguish my cause.... As if to say, “see this charge which has been brought against me by an unholy people.” For thou art God, my strength. Finally, David posits the reason to be heard: God must help him, because he has made God his principle aid.

- 3. Send forth thy light and thy truth: they have conducted me, and brought me unto thy holy hill, and into thy tabernacles.

Here, St. Robert finds cause to praise the greatness of David’s soul: David asks to be free more of mortal sin than from any temporal trouble. Send forth thy light and thy truth. As if to say, “Grant me thy grace and thy mercy, thy truth and thy faithfulness, for these lead me unto thy holy hill and into thy tabernacles. The holy hill is the eternal Jerusalem, City of Peace, in which there are many mansions, many tabernacles of the just.

The Feast of the Fifth Sunday in Lent, Passion Sunday, finds us 11 days left in our Lenten journey. The Passion of the Lord nears, the animosity of his enemies mounts, Jesus must hide himself... until His hour should come. The Epistle reveals the Passion of Christ as the reality of the Old Testament sacrifices: “...how much more shall the Blood of Christ,... cleanse our conscience from dead works,..” ; the Gospel prepares us for the coming change of covenants: “but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.” The liturgy reflects the hiding Jesus in covered images, absence of the Judica me, omissions of Gloria Patri. Oppressed by her Lenten observances, experiencing a sense of God’s absence, the Church appeals to her Judge, her strength, for His light and truth to complete her journey.

A saint is a sinner who doesn't give up!

On Thursday, Friday & Saturday of Holy Week, from between 10 to 11:45 am, Fr Hathaway invites you to join him for Tenebrae, the Office of Matins & Lauds prayed on these three holy days. In this Office, the Church mourns the sufferings & death of Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world, in pleas & dirges, with Psalms of sorrow. In the Roman Catholic Daily Missal, this Office is on pages 1694 and following. He especially welcomes those who can sing the parts opposite him; practice days (April 4, 7 & 9 from 5:30 to 6:30 pm) & handouts with melody provided. How absurd & foolish is it that should an entertainer invite us to his house, we go there with all haste, we thank him for inviting us, and we spend almost half the day there; paying attention only to him. But when God speaks to us through His holy Prophets and Apostles we yawn, we scratch, we turn this way and that! Or, when at the circus, without roof to deflect the rain, the crowds huddle, rain pouring down on them, wind blowing in their faces, and they think nothing of the cold or the rain or the distance traveled, and nothing will keep them from going there, and nothing will keep them at home! But to go to Church, Ah!, a shower, a bit of mud on the road, the crowd or climate, is a huge obstacle! ~ St. John Chrysostom, 354-407 †
